

The advertisement features two Peugeot vehicles: a classic white 504 sedan on the left and a modern orange 3008 SUV on the right. They are positioned on a dark, sandy beach with a vast, cloudy sky and distant mountains in the background. The cars are angled towards each other, creating a sense of evolution from past to present.

Though we have made vehicles for over 200 years, the 504 dominated Kenya since 1968. Today, the classic bloodline continues with the futuristic 3008. With an assembly plant at Thika to announce our homecoming, you can be confident of our capability to create vehicles of tomorrow from here.
